SATURDAY, June 26-6 P. M. The stock market yesterday, by reason of its unusual strength, afforded great encouragement to those who have been waiting for a bull movement. A large short interest was forced to cover. and strong buying was developed not only among the ordinary operators of the street but on the part of those who have fall h in the cheaper securities. This will account for the firmness of St. Paul, Northwest, Lake Shore, Ohio and Mississippi, Hannibal and St. Joseph, and even of Eric. The undertone in the latter is apparently stronger, and the stock has easily reflected with the London prices. Pacific Mail was the leading feature of the day, but the advance, weatever it may be, is generally regarded as snort-lived and artificial. Sharp and sudden reactions are looked for in this stock, notwithstanding predictions freely made of higher prices.
